F. Douglass Mss.

Paris Jan. 4 - 1850

Paris Jan 4th 1850

My dear Lib,

I wish to be able to do a good work for the cause we love a part of the - Mr. F. Douglas, which, agreeably to your earnest request things & so. Julian, I returned, I think I shall make it next to establish a kind of Anti-Slavery communication between

77

Paris, June 14 - 1830

the United States & France, & of obtaining the testimony of the celebrities of the Latin country against Slavery.
De Tocqueville, De Beaumont,
Victor Schoelcher — a mentor
& many others have a name & a fame in the United States which will make their words tell, & I trust soon to find means to condense & conduct the anti-slavery feeling latent here, aright.
Socialism here is not always synonymous with Anti-slavery any more than in the United States, Stirk among those who possess it there are sincere men. Schuckler was greatly instrumental in getting the abolition clause inserted in the Constitution.

Pray accept for yourself & family my grateful & cordial regards with the best wishes of the season in which all my family unite. Hoping to hear from you & to be favoured with your name to them that they may realize that they are unknown to you.

Ever gratefully & respectfully
W. W. Chapman.

P. S. I learn that the Bristol Constitutions pronounced more heartfelt than ever) have arrived Safely at Boston

A thousand remembrances for the Ladies & the Abolitionists sake rest on the generous Constitutions! But why should I single out these two classes, to speak for? Shall not the whole 18.000.000 ℔ souls in the U.S. bless Bristol for a high toned National Morality, & a consequent National Salvation if not now, hereafter!

W.L.G.